

When people arrive at your table

- ✓ Ask people to order something so that we can keep up good relations with this restaurant since they are letting us use their space.
- ✓ Ask people to place their food and drink orders before the discussion starts so that the discussion won't be interrupted as much.

Once the food and drinks have been ordered let everyone know...

Our main Intention

- is to provide a balanced discussion where everyone has a chance to speak.

We only have two rules

- respect for everyone at the table, and one person talking at a time (during the facilitated portion).

Interjecting

- In order to avoid anyone from dominating the discussion, just raise your hand if you would like to speak. That way, everyone (including the facilitator) knows that you have something to say.

Okay, let's get started!

Around the table question:

People answer the question from left to right ending with the person who asked it.

WARM UP QUESTIONS always help build respect at the table...

What intrigued you about this topic and what would you like to get out of this discussion?

Which of the Food For Thought videos was the most interesting to you, and why? (See page 2 with videos)

Have you ever experienced pressure to have kids and if so, from whom?

... now that we're warmed up, select from the questions below in any order...

How important has it been for you to be a parent or to live childfree - and what led you to this decision?

What is the purpose of your life, from your perspective?

What do you believe happens to us after we die?

Do you believe that death should be accepted, or treated like a disease that can be cured?

Who (if anyone) should have the legal right to end their life without pain or discomfort?

Do you believe that capital punishment should be allowed or banned?

Would anyone like to ask a question not listed here but related to the topic?

AFTER 90 MINUTES:

Feel free to stick around as long as you like. If there are multiple tables for this event then you are encouraged to move to other tables to mix and mingle.

Conversations are no longer limited to the topic.

All members are encouraged to watch at least one Food for Thought video prior to attending our events in order to provide inspiration and common starting points for the discussions to follow.
