

When people arrive at your table

- ✓ Ask people to order something so that we can keep up good relations with this restaurant since they are letting us use their space.
- ✓ Ask people to place their food and drink orders before the discussion starts so that the discussion won't be interrupted as much.

Once the food and drinks have been ordered let everyone know...

Our main Intention

- is to provide a balanced discussion where everyone has a chance to speak.

We only have two rules

- respect for everyone at the table, and one person talking at a time (during the facilitated portion).

Interjecting

- In order to avoid anyone from dominating the discussion, just raise your hand if you would like to speak. That way, everyone (including the facilitator) knows that you have something to say.

Okay, let's get started!

*Around the table question:

WARM UP QUESTIONS always help build respect at the table...

Which of the Food For Thought videos was the most interesting to you, and why?

If you saw an amazing magic trick would you prefer to know how it's done or enjoy the mystery?

Have you or someone you've known ever witnessed something supernatural (i.e. a ghost, UFO, miracle etc.)?

... now that we're warmed up...

Is there someone in your life whom you often have a hard time being truthful with?

Do you sometimes have difficulties receiving the truth from others? If so, in what ways?

What is your worldview (i.e. Atheist, Agnostic, Catholic, Hindu, etc.) and does this worldview create any challenges with your friends or family?

Do you believe that the problem of fake news will get worse or better in the years to come?

What are your sources of truth in your life? (i.e. reading the newspaper, watching documentaries, meditation etc.)

What can be done to reduce conflicts between cultures with different belief systems?

AFTER 90 MINUTES:

Feel free to stick around as long as you like. If there are multiple tables for this event then you are encouraged to move to other tables to mix and mingle.

Conversations are no longer limited to the topic.
